

Sherborne Qatar Newsletter

SHERBORNE
QATAR

12th November 2009

Eid Holiday

As announced previously the Eid holiday will be taken in line with the government dates. Therefore, there will be a normal school day on Wednesday 25th November and the Eid Holiday will start on Thursday 26th. School will resume at 0715 on Sunday 6th December.

Term dates for the rest of this academic year will be confirmed as soon as possible.

Qatar Philharmonic Orchestra

All Year 5 and 6 went to watch the Qatar Philharmonic Orchestra's children's concert today. The programme, chosen especially for children aged 9-13 included works by Prokofiev, Dukas, Mussorgsky, Berlioz and Ponchielli. The children had a great time.

Remembrance Day

Sherborne Qatar staff and pupils observed Remembrance Day on November 11th by holding a 2 minute silence at 11 o' clock in memory of members of the armed forces who have lost their lives in the two World Wars.

Nick Toczek Visit

The whole school enjoyed listening to Nick Toczek's performance on Monday and I know that many will now have a lot of ideas for their own creative writing as a result of his visit.

Red House International Book Club

Please remember that the closing date for submitting completed order forms and cash to school is Thursday 19th November. Please use only the white order forms in QAR, and not the forms on the leaflets.

Money for Nick Toczek's books needs to be brought to school by Sunday 15th November.

If you are ordering from the Red House and Nick Toczek please help Ms Rees by keeping these amounts of money separate.

