

Parents' Weekly Notices

Thursday 26 January

Key Issues Update . . .

Just a reminder that the school catering service is due to begin on Sunday 29 January

- Coupons will be sold every week on Sunday from 7.00 a.m. – 8.30 a.m. and 1.00 p.m. – 2.30 p.m. in the Front Hall.

We recommend that you write your child's name on the back of the coupons so that if they are lost we can return them to the owner when found. As a temporary measure we are going to ask children with packed lunches to eat them at the picnic benches in the shaded area next to the Dining Room. This will allow us to concentrate on getting the catered lunches under way smoothly. Then, when we have established a routine, the packed lunch children will re-join the others in the Dining Room.

Thank you for everybody's continued patience with the road which we know was particularly bad on Wednesday morning because of a couple of abandoned cars. The new link road from the Dukhan highway is still not quite finished but we hope it will be soon. As soon as it is we will let parents know.

Please Note . . .

We are all hoping that the current cold spell does not last too much longer but, whilst it does, pupils who are wearing sweaters, fleeces and hats should be wearing Sherborne Qatar ones as they are part of the school, uniform, and not any other brand.

Kiran England in 3W lost her school cardigan last week. Cameron England in Reception K has lost his school hat. Both items are labelled. They would be grateful if everyone could check uniform brought home this weekend. Danielle Obiri in 6N lost a blue wristwatch two weeks ago and he would be grateful to know if anyone has seen it.

Looking Ahead . . .

On February 15th and 16th Katara are joining forces with Shakespeare 4 Kidz to bring to the children of Qatar the work of the world's greatest playwright, William Shakespeare, in an easily accessible way that can be attended by all age groups. The five star theatrical musical production of Romeo & Juliet will be presented at the Drama Theatre of Katara and Miss Morgan strongly recommends that your child takes advantage of the opportunity if at all possible.

As this is during half term break, parents will have to be responsible for taking their children but Miss Morgan will be attending on the 16th at 10am and will be happy to meet your child/children there.

Katara are also offering a discounted rate for schools and for early bookings so if you wish your child to attend, please send in QR 100, together with the signed permission slip below, to the Finance Department by Sunday 29th January.

I agree to my child..... in class.....attending
